

UPPSALA
UNIVERSITET

RELIGION AND POLITICS

Uppsala University invites you to explore a complicated yet fascinating relationship between religion and politics from a global perspective in a series of mini lectures. What is the connection between religion and politics in different parts of the world? What is the relationship between religion, politics and media in Europe today? How do different belief systems coexist in Africa? Are Americans becoming less religious? What are the relations between the Russian Orthodox Church and the political regime in present-day Russia? What role has religion played throughout time in Latin America? Come, listen and discuss with the experts from Uppsala University!

In addition, you will be able to try out Chinese calligraphy and paper marbling, enjoy Russian sacral and Bolivian music and much more!

WHEN: 12:00–16:00, Saturday, 19 November 2016

WHERE: Museum Gustavianum, Akademigatan 3

During the day, you will have an opportunity to visit the Museum for free.

For a complete programme please visit www.gustavianum.uu.se